Chairman's Message

Thank you for being with us at the 11th Edition of the India Association Congress 2024 (11th IAC 2024), held from 29th August to 1st September 2024 at the JIO World Convention Centre, Mumbai.

Together, we explored how associations can thrive in this crowded landscape by staying true to their missions while embracing new strategies for engagement and growth.

I am deeply grateful for your active participation, your shared insights, and the collective wisdom that emerged from our discussions. The connections we built here will undoubtedly shape the future of our associations.

Thank you for being part of this journey, and I look forward to the continued impact we will create together!

Warm regards,

Prasant Saha

Chairman, India Association Congress

SESSION BRIEFS

Opening Address

09:30 - 09:40

Prasant Saha, India Association Congress

In his opening address at the 11th edition of the India Association Congress, Mr. Prasant Saha, Chairman, urged participants to embrace their collective societal purpose amid a rapidly evolving world. He highlighted the vital role associations play in connecting individuals, ideas and industries within India's diverse landscape of 1.4 billion people. Citing the significant economic contributions of associations in the U.S. and India's vast network of over 100,000 registered organizations.

Mr. Saha emphasized their impact on job creation and foreign direct investment. Acknowledging the power of collaboration, he called for a renewed commitment to building connections through technology and diversity, while thanking the organizers and partners for their contributions to a productive Congress.

Keynote Address

09:40 - 09:50

Senthil Gopinath, International Congress and Convention Association (ICCA), Netherlands

In his keynote address, Mr. Senthil Gopinath, CEO of the International Congress and Convention Association (ICCA), emphasized the crucial role of associations in driving global economic and socio-economic development.

He highlighted the community's significant contributions and stressed the need for policymakers to recognize these efforts to unlock their full potential.

Mr. Gopinath discussed the substantial impact of association meetings on innovation, knowledge transfer and economic growth, urging governments worldwide to appreciate the industry's importance within global tourism and business events. He concluded by showcasing India's thriving MICE industry as a key player in the global economy, calling for enhanced collaboration to fully harness its capabilities.

SESSION BRIEFS

Guest of Honor

09:50 - 10:00

Suman Billa, IAS, Ministry of Tourism, Government of India

At the 11th India Association Congress, Mr. Suman Billa, IAS, from the Ministry of Tourism, Government of India, highlighted India's significant progress in MICE infrastructure. From new convention centers in tier 2 and 3 cities to enhanced air, road, and rail connectivity, India is now equipped to host large-scale global events. Mr. Billa pointed to the successful hosting of G20 meetings across smaller regions as a testament to this growth. He emphasized the need for collaboration between stakeholders, to drive the MICE industry forward.

Looking ahead, he stressed the importance of creating city-level convention bureaus and a strategic business plan to firmly establish India as a global MICE destination by 2047.

Power of Words

10:00 - 10:30

Mohammed Qahtani, World Champion of Public Speaking

The session titled Power of Words by Mohammad Qahtani was an eye-opening experience that brilliantly highlighted the profound impact words can have on our lives. With exceptional clarity, Qahtani illustrated how words, when used positively, can uplift and inspire, while negative words have the potential to harm and diminish.

Through engaging examples and captivating demonstrations with audience volunteers, he showcased the real-life consequences of our speech, leaving everyone with a renewed appreciation for the power that lies in our words. It was a compelling reminder of how language can shape our world, one conversation at a time.

SESSION BRIEFS

Staying Relevant in a Crowded World (Part I)

11:00 - 11:45

Nita Kapoor, Intl Spirits & Wines Association
Sushma Morthania, India SME Forum
Roland Landers, All India Gaming Federation
Prasant Saha, India Association Congress

The insightful panel discussion, moderated by Mr. Prasant Saha, Chairman of the India Association Congress, brought together a diverse group of esteemed panelists, including Nita Kapoor from the International Spirits & Wines Association, Sushma Morthania from the India SME Forum, and Roland Landers from the All India Gaming Federation. The conversation centered around the critical need for associations to navigate the ever-increasing challenge of distinguishing between accurate and misleading information across various channels.

The panelists also delved into the importance of mentorship and providing practical advice for associations to retain and support their members. They emphasized the value of being transparent, honest, and delivering quantifiable services, which are essential to maintaining strong member engagement and loyalty, especially in an era marked by decreasing attention spans and increasing complexity in communication.

Destination: Sultanate of Oman

11:45 - 12:00

Sheikha Fuad Al Mugheiry, Oman Convention & Exhibition Center

The speaker introduces the Oman Convention and Exhibition Center, highlighting its partnership with the Oman Convention Bureau.

They emphasize the center's unique location in Oman, offering a variety of leisure and MICE opportunities, including pristine beaches, golf courses and cultural landmarks like the Royal Oman Opera House. With a newly opened international airport, Oman is easily accessible.

The center itself boasts large exhibition halls, theaters, ballrooms, and meeting spaces, hosting around 200 events annually. The center offers full event support with in-house AV, catering by JW Marriott and a range of accommodations nearby.

SESSION BRIEFS

Future of Association

12:00 - 12:30

Dean West, Association Laboratory, USA

In his compelling session on the “Future of Associations” Dean West, President of Association Laboratory, USA, drew from his 40 years of experience to provide invaluable insights into the evolving landscape of associations. He emphasized how the rapid advancement of technology is reshaping the way associations operate, highlighting the pressing challenges of overcoming geographic and organizational boundaries. Mr. West spoke passionately about the need for adaptability, as associations must thrive in an environment characterized by constant motion, dynamic change and increasing complexity.

Looking ahead, he urged associations to focus on being a vital connection point, serving as a platform for people to collaborate and achieve shared goals. His call to action was clear; associations must embrace innovation and continuously seek out new opportunities to stay relevant and successful in the future.

Staying Relevant in a Crowded World (Part II)

12:30 - 13:15

Panellists: Jayesh Khimji Rambhia, All India Plastic Manufacture Association

Raj Kapoor, India Blockchain Alliance
Srikanth Chandrasekaran, Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers - India

Moderator: Deep Pal, Public Affairs Forum of India

The panel discussion, moderated by Deep Pal from the Public Affairs Forum of India, brought together an exceptionally diverse group of industry leaders, including Jayesh Khimji Rambhia from the All India Plastic Manufacturers Association, Sabyasachi Ray from The Gem & Jewellery Export Promotion Council, Raj Kapoor from the India Blockchain Alliance, and Srikanth Chandrasekaran from the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers - India. The conversation highlighted the long-standing service of these associations and their primary offerings for members, each providing unique value within their respective sectors.

The panellists delved into recent challenges faced by their organizations, exploring how navigating operational difficulties has, in turn, strengthened their associations. They also addressed the complexity of communicating effectively in an era overloaded with information, discussing how this abundance has impacted membership engagement. The need for trust, constant value creation, and active engagement was emphasized, with a focus on how associations must continuously collaborate with their members to stay relevant. Ultimately, the discussion underscored the importance of creating trust and fostering meaningful relationships to ensure long-term member loyalty and success in an ever-evolving landscape.

SESSION BRIEFS

Destination: Mumbai

14:30 - 14:45

Thomas Joseph, Jio World Convention Centre, Mumbai

The speech highlights the significance of associations in driving innovation, collaboration and economic impact through national and international events. The JWCC supports these efforts by launching the Mumbai Conference Ambassador Program, which provides full backing to associations bidding for events in Mumbai. This program offers access to professional teams in design, research, content, event planning and more, helping associations present compelling bids. The speaker introduces the first five ambassadors for the program, acknowledging their role in positioning Mumbai as a global MICE destination. With world-class infrastructure and facilities, Mumbai is ready to host impactful international events that will contribute to the city's growth and foster global collaborations. The speech concludes with a call for further involvement in the program, encouraging attendees to contribute to making Mumbai a leading global event destination.

Creating a Sustainable MICE Destination

14:45 - 15:30

Panellists: Suman Billa, IAS, Ministry of Tourism, Government of India
Senthil Gopinath, International Congress and Convention Association, Netherlands
Thomas Joseph, Jio World Convention Centre, Mumbai

Moderator: Philip Logan, Royal Orchid Hotels

The panel discussion, moderated by Philip Logan of Royal Orchid Hotels, featured a distinguished group of speakers, including Suman Billa, IAS, from the Ministry of Tourism, Government of India, Senthil Gopinath from the International Congress and Convention Association (ICCA), Netherlands, and Thomas Joseph from Jio World Convention Centre, Mumbai. The conversation centered around the future of sustainable events and the creation of sustainable MICE (Meetings, Incentives, Conferences, and Exhibitions) destinations. The panelists explored how government initiatives are supporting associations from a microeconomic perspective, emphasizing the importance of sustainability in city and venue selection.

They also highlighted the significance of establishing ambassador programs to promote MICE events and discussed how infrastructure development is pivotal to India's growth potential in this sector. The panel touched on the critical role of humility in fostering strong associations, with a focus on education, communication, and member engagement. Overall, the discussion underscored the opportunities India has in becoming a premier conference destination by fostering a cohesive and forward-thinking approach among association members.

SESSION BRIEFS

14 Conversations Driving Association Planning

15:30 - 16:00

Belinda Moore, Strategic Membership Solutions, Australia

In her thought-provoking session on "Conversations Driving Association Planning," Belinda Moore from Strategic Membership Solutions, Australia, drew from her over 30 years of experience to explore the timeless significance of associations. From the earliest days of human civilization, people have come together for a shared purpose, and associations continue to play a vital role in advancing meaningful causes. Moore emphasized that in today's rapidly evolving landscape, associations must harness the power of AI to enhance communication, decision-making, and engagement.

She highlighted the exciting opportunities AI presents for everyone, predicting an acceleration of AI's capabilities in the coming months. With this technological shift, Ms. Moore stressed the importance of making deliberate, thoughtful choices to ensure associations remain purposeful, forward-looking and responsive to the changing needs of their members.

Destination: Sri Lanka

16:30 - 16:45

Achini Dandunnage, Sri Lanka Convention & Visitor Bureau

The speaker presents Sri Lanka as an ideal destination for business events, highlighting its accessibility, diverse attractions and rich cultural heritage.

Representing the Sri Lanka Convention Bureau, the speaker emphasizes that the bureau acts as a one-stop resource for event organizers, offering support for conferences, value-added services like cultural shows and connecting organizers with local vendors. Sri Lanka's compactness allows easy access to a variety of attractions, including beaches, golf courses, historic sites, wildlife parks and tea plantations.

The country offers excellent infrastructure, modern hotels and a warm, hospitable environment, making it a perfect destination for both business and leisure.

SESSION BRIEFS

Women in Association

16:45 - 17:15

Panellists: Jaya Jain, American Society of Mechanical Engineers
Trupti Pawar, Hotel & Restaurant Association of India
Dr Swapna Joshi, The Nurses Association of India
Anju Gomes, International Congress and Convention Association

Moderator: Arindam Mookherjee, Society of Actuaries, USA

The panel discussion, moderated by Arindam Mookherjee from the Society of Actuaries, USA, featured an esteemed group of female leaders, including Jaya Jain from the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, Trupti Pawar from the Hotel & Restaurant Association of India, Dr. Swapna Joshi from The Nurses Association of India, and Anju Gomes from the International Congress and Convention Association. The conversation focused on the unique challenges women face in their workplaces and careers, with each panelist sharing insights from their own organizations.

They explored how women's leadership styles often differ from men's, emphasizing qualities such as empathy, collaboration, and a strong focus on mentorship. The panelists also discussed the importance of education, meetings and conferences as platforms for empowering women and encouraging more female participation in associations. They addressed the barriers women face, including balancing work and personal life and emphasized the need for creating inclusive environments where women are actively supported and inspired to take on leadership roles. The discussion highlighted the ongoing need to champion women's contributions, foster their growth and ensure they have equal opportunities to thrive in their respective fields.

Destination: Jaipur

17:15 - 17:20

Manuj Rahlan, Novotel Jaipur Convention Centre & Jaipur Exhibition Convention Centre - Managed by Accor

The JECC is an emerging venue located in the vibrant Pink City, having been operational for just eight months. Already, it has hosted notable events, including the IPL's event planning version and Arijit Singh's musical extravaganza in January 2025, drawing 25,000 fans.

Spread across 42 acres, JECC features two exhibition halls, each covering 100,000 square feet with a 43-foot ceiling height, alongside a 24,000 square foot convention center with 800-seat auditorium-style seating. With over 1,500 hotel rooms nearby and vast open spaces for events,

JECC caters to large exhibitions, corporate MICE events and more. Additionally, it offers a diverse culinary experience with local specialties, making it a prime destination for events in India's Golden Triangle region. JECC's commitment to exceptional service and infrastructure ensures it's a prime choice for hosting events, concerts, weddings and conferences.

SESSION BRIEFS

MICE Hotels: Indian Hotel Company Limited

17:20 - 17:25

Parveen Chander Kumar, Indian Hotel Company Limited

Indian Hotels Company Limited (IHCL), part of the Tata Group, operates over 325 hotels across 150 locations in 13 countries. With a history of over 120 years, IHCL focuses on customer-centricity, which revolves around trust, awareness and joy.

IHCL also offers luxury services through its Chambers brand, wellness programs and bespoke experiences at its palaces.

The company is expanding rapidly, adding two hotels per month and offers extensive convention facilities across locations like Agra, Goa and Taj Bangalore. IHCL is committed to sustainability, with eco-friendly initiatives such as green energy meetings. Recently, Taj was ranked as India's strongest brand and the world's strongest hotel brand in 2024.

Venue Presentation: Hyderabad International Convention Center

17:25 - 17:30

Prithvi Anand, Hyderabad International Convention Center

The Hyderabad International Convention Center (HICC), founded in 2006, was created with a vision to provide India with a world-class venue for both national and international conventions. Its development was rapid, with the convention center and hotel completed within a year. Located just a 45-minute drive from the airport, HICC is easily accessible via a seamless expressway.

This state-of-the-art facility offers a 60,000-square-foot pillarless ballroom with a 42-foot ceiling, making it ideal for large events. The venue provides ample rigging points for LED walls, numerous branding opportunities and a unique setup where organizers can earn revenue by reselling branding space.

The attached hotel, with 287 rooms, features a simple layout that connects directly to the convention center. The surrounding eight acres of lush gardens are perfect for social events, and two poolside restaurants offer a combination of business and leisure. With a 5,000-seat theater-style capacity, exhibition space, and breakout rooms, HICC is designed to be a dream venue for event organizers.

TESTIMONIALS

“ It's been wonderful. The audience has been fantastic. It's great to see so many different types of associations here. I can't believe the breadth of topics covered today, and it's so exciting to talk about the conversations associations are having, as well as what's happening in AI. It's truly an awesome event, and think every association professional should attend. ”

Belinda Moore

Strategic Membership Solutions (SMS)

“ I'm happy to be here. I look forward to being here again in the future. ”

Dr. Ashish Kale

Indian Society For Assisted Reproduction

“ I'm very glad to be here. It's been a pleasure and I'm really impressed with the venue and the quality of the people I've been meeting and networking with. I'm pleased to see so many associations and the potential India has to really grow in the association business. It's been an extraordinary experience and I'd like to congratulate the organizers. Hopefully, we'll be part of this community in the coming years. ”

Anju Gomes

International Congress & Convention Association

“ I'd like to thank IAC for this award because they've really encouraged us. I'm glad to be here today. They're doing a great job by organizing these awards and creating opportunities for interactions with other association leaders. There's been a lot of learning and new ideas, so really congratulate them on this program. After attending last year's program, I learned a lot from the different speakers and gained a lot of new knowledge. I implemented a couple of ideas in our association, which really opened new doors for us. I'm really thankful to the speakers for that and I look forward to more seminars and insights from different people. ”

Huzefa Samplewala

President, Association of Furniture Manufacturers & Traders (INDIA) AFMT

“ I'm really delighted to be part of this Congress and this conference because so many people are under one roof, coming together to talk about how we can collaborate, help each other and grow together. For the first time in my life, I'm experiencing and attending such a conference. Otherwise, in day-to-day life, we attend our technical conferences, but this is something unique. I'm sure that the India Association Congress will grow further and bring many more people like this together. ”
